The Workforce Investment Board, Sheldon Foundation, Chautauqua Region Community Foundation, and Northern Chautauqua Community Foundation present the

Healthcare Career Advantage Talent Pipeline Development Program

An Internship Program for Young Professionals
(College Students and High School Graduates)
interested in and pursuing Direct Patient Care Careers
Please note: This Internship is based on funding availability.

Applying

This unique and innovative program will support a group of young professionals to be placed in paid internships at health care organizations located in the Chautauqua region. By filling out this application and submitting a resume, you may be selected to complete an intense interview process to determine if you are the right person to fill one of the openings. This includes an initial interview with Workforce Investment Board (WIB) staff as well as a second interview with the host organization. Please note that this internship opportunity is extremely competitive with a limited number of positions. Applications will be considered in order of when they are received.

Please e-mail your completed application and your resume to:

IMPORTANT - Please indicate in Subject Line: 2021 APPLICATION – Healthcare Career Advantage

Internships and Learning

Each Healthcare Career Advantage – Talent Pipeline Development Program intern's schedule will be determined by the host organization. The internship will last approximately 6-8 weeks. In addition to the internship, you may be asked to work with the WIB on community projects that are meant to further interested students and young adults in healthcare careers locally. As a member of the Healthcare Career Advantage – Talent Pipeline Development Internship Program, you are required to participate in any networking events offered by the WIB and others and identify yourself as a Healthcare Career Advantage Intern in the community. You are shaping what we hope to be a sustainable program to support talented young professionals to consider a long term career in Healthcare in Chautauqua County.
